RK Entertainment Group announces management contract between RK Entertainment Group and international recording star C-Mack/Kraig E.

Los Angeles, California – October 1, 2006

RK Entertainment Group and international recording star C-Mack aka Kraig E. have agreed to allow RK Entertainment Group manage and guide his career to increase his exposure, marketability, and music opportunities.

“C-Mack is a largely recognized international recording star and we are fortunate enough to be chosen to increase his marketability in the United States and abroad,” said Ray McKenzie. “He has released two albums in Japan, has topped music charts in Japan, has toured the world, and now is coming to United States to make it happen.”

“C-Mack was introduced to us through a mutual friend and we initially took a liking to his music. It was a natural progression for us to work together while heading in the same directional. We have a lot to offer his career and everyone will be seeing more of C-Mack soon,” mentioned Kenya Chaney.

“I selected RK Entertainment Group to manage my career at this stage because of the favorable opinions of my close friends and family and the professional representation they provide. I met Ray and Ken and introduced them to check out my music. They took a liking to it and were impressed. We moved forward from there and hopefully our working relationship will continue to expand and as a team we can take my career to the next level,” said C-Mack.
